

FIERCE FIGHT AT THE FORTS

Land and Sea Forces Engage in a Desperate Battle, Both Sides Having Heavy Losses.

JAPANESE SHOWED GREAT VALOR

Repeatedly Attacked the Russian Positions Regardless of the Fact That They Were Driven Back by a Galling Fire.

(Special by Scripps-McNae.)
Tokio, Aug. 10.—Field Marshal Oyama is hurrying from the Japanese position outside Port Arthur to take charge of the operations against Liao Yang and Mukden, according to a report received here last night.
A report of a naval engagement off the port was current yesterday, but could not be traced to an authentic source. It is not unlikely that the Russians, in desperation, should have made a dash for liberty.
The Japanese are said to be moving on Liao Yang from the south-east as well as from the west and south, but the Russians hold strong positions and, according to all accounts, have settled down to a determined struggle for the mastery.

Another Report
London, Aug. 10.—Report that a battle is in progress off Hancheng and that the Russian forces north of Liao Yang are retreating before the advance of Kuroki's army toward Mukden has caused deep anxiety in St. Petersburg, say dispatches.

Utter lack of further news adds to the prevailing deep anxiety concerning the safety of Kuroki's army. The Russian capital is full of sinister rumors. It is believed that Kuroki has decided to face the necessity of fighting at Liao Yang, which is looked upon as a great misfortune that may end in disaster.

Adds to Great Tension
There is increasing impatience among all classes for decisive news from Liao Yang. Lieutenant General Sakharoff's report that there has been no change in the Manchurian army's sphere of operations merely adds to the tension.

There is no telling how much time the notoriously slow and methodical preparations of the Japanese may consume before they feel ready to advance on General Kuropatkin's positions.

Every day's delay, however, gives the Russian commander greater opportunity to fortify or to get away in case he decides to avoid a big battle, though it is not generally thought here that there is much likelihood of his retreating without a decisive fight.

Take No Chances
Tokio, Aug. 10.—It was stated today on good authority that in view of the fact that the situation at Port Arthur is well in hand, Marshal Oyama will leave the peninsula and take charge of the operations against Liao Yang and Mukden which now form the crucial point of the war.
The taking of Port Arthur which it is of course necessary to Japan's complete success, is now considered of secondary importance to the crushing of the Russian army in Manchuria. This is the task to which the Japanese generals will now bend their greatest importance that Japan's most skillful and resourceful strategist, Oyama, is to be given command.

HE LEAVES WIFE AND SON DESTITUTE

Madison the Scene of a 'Sad Deser-tion of His Family by a Day Laborer.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., August 10.—William Burrington, a laborer of this city, ran away from home without any cause or provocation, leaving his wife and 9-year-old son in destitute circumstances. Mrs. Burrington is in ill health and in order to keep herself and child from starvation, applied to Dane county for aid. The whereabouts of the cruel husband and father are unknown.

ANOTHER CONFERENCE MAY BE BROUGHT ABOUT SOON

Other Unions Using Pressure To Make the Packers Give In, in Some Points.

(By Wisconsin News Association.)
Chicago, Aug. 10.—The retail market drivers of the teamsters union are bringing pressure to lay upon the retail butcher and grocers' association to induce them to use their influence to bring about another conference of strikers with the packers. It is believed that the packers can be induced to make concessions. Several clashes plate control of the entire campaign. In the meantime operations against Port Arthur will not be neglected.

Will Be Ready Soon
Paris, Aug. 10.—A telegram was received at the foreign office which states Kuropatkin has not abandoned Liao Yang, but he intends to give battle within three or four days.

Ten Torpedo Destroyers Sent.
A Russian engineer who arrived at Chefoo Monday night, after a two days' passage from Port Arthur, states that it is believed there that altogether ten Japanese torpedo boat destroyers have been sunk at Port Arthur.

The Russian arsenal is producing small arm ammunition and small gun fittings, some of which enabled the nine-inch guns which were received in an incomplete state to be mounted.

The Tokio correspondent of the Times says he learns on the best authority that there is no truth whatever in the Russian rumors of Japanese reverses with heavy losses at Port Arthur.

All Outworks Are Captured.
Tokio, Aug. 10.—The Japan Mail prints a summary of Port Arthur rumors. It says that probably all the Russian outworks have been captured and that the Japanese army is easily in range of the main defenses.

It is now a question of mounting siege guns. The indications are that this work was commenced on Aug. 4 or 5. The Russians apparently defended their outworks desperately and suffered heavily.

The indications are that the Japanese fleet co-operated vigorously with the land forces, especially in the attack on Shushiyung. The Russian fleet was inactive except the smaller vessels.

Gen. Oku apparently is hurrying his preparations. Heat regards his attack.

Russian Losses 50,000.
Thus far in the Manchurian campaign the Japanese have taken 1,500 prisoners and buried 2,600 Russian dead. It is estimated that the total losses to the Russians number upward of 20,000, while the invaders will bring the number of troops incapacitated up to 50,000.

PEACE IS IN QUITE AN UNCOMFORTABLE POSITION

FORMER RESIDENT IN LAW'S TOILS

George Puffer Fires Two Shots at Patrolman Barch in Milwaukee.

According to a morning Milwaukee paper George Puffer, formerly head machinist for the cotton mills here, had a lively set to with police officers in the Cream city last evening, and was only arrested after he had been wounded and had shot repeatedly at the policeman. Puffer is well remembered here, his wife being a Janesville girl. He left Janesville some seven years ago. The following is the account of the trouble:

While residing Patrolman Louis Barch George Puffer, a machinist living at 460 Scott street, was shot in the right shoulder by the patrolman at 11 o'clock last night. Puffer had twice fired at Barch. Barch escaped injury by dodging behind a tree.

Puffer was taken to the Emergency hospital where his wound was dressed. His condition is not serious.

The shooting was the culmination of numerous complaints that have been lodged against Puffer by members of his family. Puffer is said by the police to be a heavy drinker. He has had trouble with his wife and family on many occasions. He returned home from work at 6 o'clock last night slightly intoxicated. It is said, and started a disturbance. Later he left home in search of his eldest daughter, who was visiting friends. Puffer's condition was reported to the policeman by Mrs. Puffer.

Patrolman Barch met Puffer near his home upon his return and placed him under arrest. Mrs. Puffer stood by the gate. Her husband handed her a parcel, at the same time drawing a revolver.

Puffer turned and placed the weapon against the policeman's side. Barch jumped behind a tree just in time to escape two bullets. Although the policeman was encumbered by drawing his revolver.

Puffer, when shot, started down an alley between Washington and Scott streets. The patrolman followed. "Don't shoot," Puffer shouted, "I've quit."

He threw away his revolver as he spoke. A moment later Barch grappled with him and led him to a patrol box.

ORDERS ARE OUT FOR SILENCE NOW

Administration Leaders Pass the Word to Keep Quiet on All the Important Propositions.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., Aug. 10.—Halfbreed leaders have suddenly shut up as tight as clams in regard to the proposed halfbreed bills against congressmen and even the claquers in the ranks and file are no longer telling of the political deaths which are likely to happen to several Republican congressmen in Wisconsin this fall because they have failed to enroll themselves under the halfbreed banners. In fact, just at the present time both congressmen, Minor and Babcock even are immune for a few weeks, for halfbreed attacks and the halfbreed sheets which some time ago were so full of articles in which these two congressmen were scored, are now very quiet indeed on congressional subjects.

Orders are said to have gone forth from the inner circles of "reform" for silence on the congressional question and it is said the halfbreed congressmen who have been traveling around the Third and Ninth districts making an open light on Messrs. Babcock and Minor have been suddenly called in. The secret of this silence after weeks of activity against these congressmen is said to be the fact that the halfbreeds, still hoping for some kind of recognition from the Republican "national ticket" have received an intimation from national politicians that they could not hope for much national support, no matter what contingencies should occur. If they continued, in open rebellion against the Republican party by fighting publicly its congressional nominees.

A WET DAY FOR JUDGE PARKER

Esopus Is Deluged by a Drenching Rain This Morning—Thousands Are Disappointed.

OUTLINES THE DEMOCRATIC POLICY

The Standard Bearer of the Democratic Party Delivers an Able Speech—Spent Morning in Learning It.

(Special by Scripps-McNae.)
New York, August 10.—The committee of notification, consisting of five hundred prominent democrats, left at eight this morning on the steamer Sagamore for Esopus, where the notification ceremony of Nominee Parker will take place at two this afternoon.

Awful Rain
Esopus, N. Y., Aug. 10.—The worst rain seen in Esopus this summer marked the advent of the notification committee this morning. The streets of the village were deluged and at eleven rain still fell heavily. Judge Parker is deeply disappointed. He had hoped for a day of sunshine. A few guests invited to witness the ceremony expressed the deepest regret. Judge Parker spent most of the forenoon committing to memory his speech of acceptance.

Rain Stops
It stopped raining at twelve-thirty and the skies cleared. The steamer Sagamore with Chairman Champ Clark and members of the notification committee, was sighted from Rosemount at one-fifty. She immediately began to salute the nominee, the Sagamore tied up at the dock at 1:15 p. m. It was crowded with more than seven hundred visitors. Some difficulty was experienced in landing. As the committee left the boat they formed in line of twos and walked up the slope to the villa where Parker met them and shook hands with each. The lines were drawn about the piazza and a portion of the lawn north of the house, where the ceremonies were conducted. The audience inside the rope was by ticket.

After the hand shaking the committee repaired to seats on the lawn. Streams of visitors came from nearby towns and over a thousand are on the lawn. Judge Parker was escorted to the platform by Chairman Champ Clark and State Chairman Cordwener. The sun came out and flooded the scene. Banners of different states were flung on the platform. The Seventh regiment band played the national air.

Judge Alton B. Parker, in addressing the committee which notified him of his nomination for the presidency by the Democratic national convention at St. Louis, said:

"Mr. Chairmen and Gentlemen of the Committee: I have resigned the office of chief judge of the court of appeals of this state in order that I may accept the responsibility that the

POWERS CONFERRED BY PEOPLE

"Occasionally, by reason of unnecessary or impatient agitation for reforms, or because the limitations placed upon the departments of government by the constitution are disregarded by officials desiring to accomplish that which to them seems good, whether the power exists in them or not, it becomes desirable to call attention to the fact that the people, in whom all power resides, have seen fit, through the medium of the constitution, to limit the governmental powers conferred and to say to departments created by it: 'Thus far shalt thou go and no farther.' To secure the ends sought the people have by the constitution separated and distributed among the three departments of government—the executive, legislative and judicial—certain powers, and it is the duty of those administering each department so to act as to preserve, rather than to destroy the potency of the co-ordinate branches of the government, and thus secure the exercise of all the powers conferred by the people.

"Thomas Jefferson, in a letter to William C. Jarvis, touching the perpetuity of our institutions, written many years ago, had retired to private life, said: 'If the three powers of our government maintain their mutual independence of each other, it may last long, but not so if either can assume the authority of the other.' It must be confessed that in the course of our history executives have employed powers not belonging to them; statutes have been passed that were expressly forbidden by the constitution and statutes have been set aside as unconstitutional when it was difficult to point out the provisions said to be offended against in their enactment; all this has been done with a good purpose, no doubt, but in disregard, nevertheless, of the fact that ours is a government of laws, not of men, deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed.' If we would have our government continue during the ages to come, for the benefit of those who shall succeed us, we must ever be on our guard against the danger of usurpation of that authority which resides in the whole people, whether the usurpation be by officials representing one of the three great departments of government, or by a body of men acting without a commission from the people.

Protection of Citizens
"Impatience of the restrictions of law, as well as of its delays, is becoming more and more manifest from day to day. Within the past few years many instances, have been brought to our great convention you represent has put upon me, without possible prejudice to the court to which I had the honor to belong, or to the eminent members of the judiciary of this state, of whom I may now say as a private citizen I am justly proud.

"At the very threshold of this response and before dealing with other subjects, I must, in justice to myself and to relieve my sense of gratitude, express my profound appreciation of the confidence reposed in me by the convention. After nominating me and subsequently receiving a communication declaring that I regarded the gold standard as firmly and irrevocably established, a matter concerning which I felt it incumbent upon me to make known my attitude so that hereafter no man could justly say that his support had been secured through inclination or mistake, the convention reiterated its determination that I should be the standard bearer of the party in the present contest. This mark of trust and confidence I shall ever esteem as the highest honor that could be conferred upon me—an honor that, whatever may be the fate of the campaign, the future can in no degree lessen or impair.

Janesville Daily Gazette, Wednesday, Aug. 10, 1864.—Excursion.—Our city was visited today by a party of five or six hundred excursionists from Madison. A Sunday school, which comprised part of their number, very wisely spent the time allotted for the stay of the party in the beautiful grove near the residence of Mr. Crosby. An excursion train was also expected here from Chicago but we did not learn of its arrival.

He can possibly survive his injuries only a few hours. His age is about 12 years. P. S.—The unfortunate lad died about 4 o'clock.

RUSSIA.

There is no better American Judge of Russian conditions than Andrew D. White, who was formerly ambassador to Germany, and who is a scholar and historian of high rank. Mr. White, speaking of the assassination of de Plehve, says that the situation at present is most desperately bad in Russian history, and that it has been brought on by an exercise of despotism more unreasonable, cruel, and shortsighted than anything in recent human history outside of the Turkish Empire.

The assassination of de Plehve brings vividly to public notice the conditions of internal disorder, unrest, and corruption existing within the Russian Empire. There is no doubt that things in Russia are ripe for a change. The form this change will take cannot, of course, be foreseen; it may be revolution, or it may be reform; it may be the wiping out of the present government and it may be the establishment of a constitutional system. But conditions cannot go on long as they are now. De Plehve seems to have represented the worst of the present despotic system. His assassination may be thought by many to be of incalculable advantage to the empire, abhorrent as they deem the assassination to be.

But it is of interest to note that Mr. White says that it is likely to be a pretext for new oppression and new cruelties towards the Jewish population and towards the Finlanders, as assassination always defeats its purpose. Reform in Russia will come, not at the hands of the assassins, but from the intelligent and right-minded people of the empire, of whom there are multitudes within her boundaries.

That it was a mistake for Russia to go to war with Japan when such a war required the transportation of troops and supplies over immense distances, putting Russia, powerful as she is, at a disadvantage with Japan, there is now no reason to doubt. Moreover, it was a mistake for her governing powers to enter into such a war at a time when she had been weakened by corruption and by the excess of her nobles, and when there was existing throughout her empire a profound feeling of unrest and resentment. But the war with Japan, though it may result in the temporary defeat and humiliation of Russia, may ultimately be the means of creating a new Russia better and more powerful than the old. If it hastens, as it is not unlikely to do, the movement for internal reform and for a larger liberty and democracy, then the humiliation of Russia may be the means of restoring a new and better order. She will thus make defeat the stepping-stone of an ultimate triumph—the victory over self—American, as a friend of Russia, will rejoice.

ABOUT THE CROPS.

In view of the admitted shortage in the wheat crop, the brilliant outlook for the cotton crop is of the highest value. Our exports of cotton make more exchange favorable to this country than any other domestic product, and in the last fiscal year, they constituted over one-fourth of the value of our total exports. Therefore the shortage in wheat, even if it is as large as is estimated by Mr. Jones, is much less a loss than would be a failure of the cotton crop. Important as our exports of wheat are, the crop situation as it now sizes up, points to large crops of cotton and hay, a shortage of wheat, with corn yet to be determined but now promising well. If this outlook is realized this country may well be congratulated, for it will be assured of another year of prosperity.

One crop does not determine the business situation in the United States. It takes a failure of at least two crops to constitute a disaster. This is the advantage of having a territory of immense extent and varied soil. We are not tied down to one crop or one industry. A failure in one line may be felt in all, but it does not necessarily cripple the energies of the country.

As a rule, it may be said that when the yields of any two of our three great products, cotton, wheat and corn, are fair, a shortage in the third does not prevent prosperous conditions. It is rare indeed that all three crops are full.

In 1897, as compared with the preceding year, wheat increased 103,000,000 bushels, corn decreased 581,000,000 bushels, and cotton increased 1,500,000 bales.

In 1898, wheat increased 115,000,000 bushels, corn increased 22,000,000 bushels, and cotton increased 2,400,000 bales.

In 1899, wheat decreased 128,000,000 bushels, corn increased 151,000,000 bushels, and cotton increased 75,000 bales.

In 1900, wheat decreased 250,000,000 bushels, corn increased 27,000,000 bushels, and cotton decreased 1,500,000 bales.

In 1901, wheat increased 226,000,000 bushels, corn decreased 553,000,000 bushels, and cotton increased 300,000 bales.

In 1902, wheat decreased 78,000,000 bushels, corn increased 1,000,000,000 bushels, and cotton increased 200,000 bales.

In 1903, wheat decreased 43,000,000 bushels, corn decreased 250,000,000 bushels, and cotton increased 40,000 bales.

Only once in these years was there an increase in the yield of all three commodities. In only two years was there a falling off in two of them.

So Mr. Olin claims that La Follette stole that convention. There was little about it when the republicans in the convention were told to go hang for all the use the La Follette men had for them.

Wall street does not know just where to step. Into the frying pan of Parker and Davis, or into the cool and safe retreat of Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

So much can be said in favor of a republican president and so little in favor of a democratic one, that the times are hard for the paragraph writers.

Loving couples in the park must have known that the electric-light franchise alderman has gone away for a vacation from their recent actions.

Rock county will be the scene of a fight between three parties at any rate this fall even if other counties only have two.

Too much of a good thing sometimes makes men apathetic to the matters they should pay most attention to.

Wisconsin now has her eyes on the supreme court. The democrats have ceased to bet they would win out.

Operas that could clearly depict a Central America revolution would make money just now.

The socialists think that La Follette is all right. He suits them exactly.

At last the first question has been decided. The supreme court has jurisdiction.

It will either be the death or salvation of the unions in Chicago.

Might and right do not always walk hand in hand.

Chicago still suffers from the meat strike.

PRESS COMMENT

Milwaukee Sentinel: Judge Parker has received an eighty-six pound watermelon from Georgia. The judge is now in a position to move in force on the colored vote at Esopus.

Oshkosh Northwestern: No loyal La Follette supporter will refuse to take out a hunter's license this year. You see the governor needs the money.

Oshkosh Northwestern: No loyal sending her convicts out to fight the Japanese. It will be a great sight when they go forth to battle, waving flags and hurrahing for "the fatherland."

Madison Journal: It will be noticed that Governor La Follette is the splendor of the present political unpleasantness, but his hand moves, even if the mouth is silent.

Chicago Inter Ocean: "I'm sore on the ghost vote. When a man's dead his vote ends."—William S. Devery. William S. should go out to Colorado where they vote the names from the coroner's books and then repeat.

Chicago Tribune: The mayor will acknowledge that Chicago has endeavored to make his enforced stay as pleasant as possible by giving him its best brand of vacation weather.

Marquette Eagle-Star: There is no limit to a woman's revenge. A Louisville woman, with majesty aforethought, loaned her ex-husband $2 with which to pay for a license to wed her hated rival.

Superior Telegram: Invention will never cease. An eastern baldheaded man hired an expert painter to paint a large and ferocious looking spider on the summit of his dome of thought and now the flies no longer trouble him.

La Crosse Leader-Press: If President Roosevelt should be re-elected, Postmaster General Payne expects to hold over, while if Judge Parker wins Edward C. Wall is said to be slated for Payne's successor. Neither party can get along without Wisconsin talent.

El Paso Herald: It is a Milwaukee minister who is renting out space in his church for advertising. Let us see, was there not something of this sort going on in the temple at Jerusalem once with disastrous results to the merchants doing business there?

Waukesha Freeman: Wisconsin summer resorts that depend on people from other states for their patronage are feeling the effects of the cool temperature prevailing in the west and south. Fewer tourists are visiting Wisconsin this year than before in many years. The cause is one that will not, probably, continue in future.

Minneapolis Tribune: Two full-blooded Indians are street car conductors in St. Louis, but when they command the patient passenger to "move up in the aisle" they add "please" just as gently as their Caucasian fellows. It has taken a long time for the noble red man to advance from tomahawks to trolley cars, but he is there at last, and figures in many another trade besides.

Ashland Press: The supreme court of Wisconsin, it is hoped, will decide the legality of the state ticket. One ticket will be republican, and one only. Until that decision is made, it is folly for any republican to say whom he will support for governor and state officers. It is not a question of men, but of principles, and the party loyalty. The voters will have ample time to know what the republican ticket is before November.

Evansville Enterprise: In a great many instances it is a gentleman in charge of an automobile, but in other cases it is nothing but a low down hog, who cares nothing about how many horses he frightens or who is injured. All hogs should be held up with a rifle, till frightened horses are allowed to pass his machine on the highway.

Green Bay Gazette: The scandals which have cropped out this year at Madison in the various departments of the state administration, emphasize that unwritten law that two terms in office is sufficient. Four years under the present administration has brought about a suspicious state of affairs which can only be investigated and changed by a change in administration. The change is needed this fall and it is coming.

La Crosse Chronicle: All night long, or until 3 o'clock, David B. Hill, tried to get the committee on resolutions to give the St. Louis convention a gold plank but it said "No." What nonsense it is to say that the democratic party is in favor of the gold standard when its last national convention made such a record and the convention at Chicago and Kansas City went crazy on free silver and spat upon the proposition for a gold standard plank.

DOVE OF PEACE IS IN THE AIR

Decision of the Supreme Court May Settle the Much Mooted Political Question.

The action of the conservative republicans of Wisconsin in bringing an action in equity rather than mandamus proceedings, to settle the factional fight of that party in this state, has served to bring the two widely differing factions perceptibly closer. The factions have contested for nearly a decade, but always they have come together sufficiently early to carry the state for the party. This year hope of such a reconciliation was given up, but appears to have been revived by the presentation of the trouble in the party to the state supreme court on its merits rather than upon the technicalities of a mandamus action. "Leaders of both factions were in Madison yesterday in numbers and it was apparent that they were more courteous and civil to each other than for perhaps a year and a half," said a Janesville gentleman, who was present, "since the last session of the legislature. In fact, the bitterness of the factional warfare has been so intense as almost to forbid belief, but the signs are pointing to a 'getting together' as soon as the supreme court renders its decision, which will be probably in the month of September."

QUEER FIND IN A STONE QUARRY

C. K. Millmore Believes That He Has in His Possession Portion of Petrified Indian Squaw.

C. K. Millmore is carrying in his vest pocket what he believes to be the fragment of a petrified Indian squaw. The discovery was made at sunset last evening in his quarry south of the city. Dr. Judd examined the bit of stone and is said to have pronounced it genuine. It is apparent that the stone lady was all broken up in one of the gigantic ice shelves of prehistoric times, as, notwithstanding a careful search, no other portions of her anatomy were discovered in the vicinity.

THE IMPERIAL BAND IS ENGAGED

TO PLAY AT THE STATE FAIR
SEPTEMBER 9.

GREATEST EVENT EVER HELD

Grant Fisher Says the Coming Fair
Will Be the Best Ever Held in Wisconsin.

"It will be the greatest state fair ever held in Wisconsin." This is the significant statement of State Fair Commissioner Grant Fisher. Mr. Fisher is in a position to know what he is talking about and it is through his efforts that Janesville has the signal honor of being represented at this great fair by the Imperial band on Friday, September 9th. "I have just received word from the committee on music that the Imperial band of this city will be engaged for September 9. When you stop to consider that the band is all over the state are anxious for the honor then you will understand how well the Janesville band is considered."

Good Prospects
"I really think without any joking that this fair is to be the best ever held. If you could see the enthusiasm with which the committees are working and the Milwaukee people are preparing for the week, you would understand what I mean. Monday, September 5, the fair opens. Under the auspices of the management it will be known as military and soldiers' day. All old soldiers in uniform will be admitted free. The state militia in full equipment will be in attendance and will give exhibitions of military drill, closing with a sham battle in which artillery, infantry, and cavalry will engage."

Greatest Feature
"Perhaps the greatest feature of the day will be the concert by the Filipino Constabulary band. This famous band will arrive from St. Louis at 2:30 in the morning and will be met at the depot by a military company and escorted to the grounds. They will give two concerts on Monday, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. John Philip Sousa admits this is the greatest band in the country today. They have been engaged at a great cost and will be worth every cent of the money expended."

Tuesday's Program
"On Tuesday it will be live stock day. The stock will be judged. One feature of this day will be that special tents have been arranged for the visitors to watch the judges at their work. Night here I might say something about the racing. It will be the greatest ever seen in Wisconsin. Dan Patch will be there and purses have been hung up that guarantee the best horses in the country for each day's program. There will be trotting, running, and pacing events."

On State Day
"Wednesday will be state day. This is the day that Dan Patch, the fastest horse in the world, will be driven to lower his world's record. There will be speaking, prominent among which will be the address by the governor. Thursday is Milwaukee day. Mayor Rose is to deliver the address of the day, and the presentation of novel and interesting races and exercises under the direction of the citizens of Milwaukee will be held."

Imperial Band
"Friday, the closing day of the fair, will be especially marked for Janesville people, owing to the fact the Imperial band will furnish the music for the different events. There will be a grand exhibit of live stock on the track and a parade of fancy and decorated automobiles. It will be carnival day and there will be lots of fun for everyone. The grounds are to be opened on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights, which is an innovation. There will be racing on an enclosed track under searchlights, and other special attractions. Aside from these events mentioned during the entire week there will be the best of balloon ascensions, high diving, bicycle acts, trapeze work, and slack wire performers free. I tell you the fair will be the best ever held."

EXPECT LARGE CROWD

To the A. O. H. Picnic at Yost Park Saturday.

Final arrangements for the A. O. H. picnic, which will be held at Yost park Saturday, Aug. 13th, are nearly completed.

The festivities will begin in the morning and continue until 9 o'clock in the evening.

There will be stands in the park where cool and refreshing drinks and refreshments may be had all day.

There will be addresses given by Rev. E. M. McGinty, Rev. Jas. McGinty, Hon. J. P. Nolan, and W. H. Dougherty will give the address of welcome.

In the afternoon a baseball game will be played between the Eagles of Beloit and the Janesville Stars.

There will be a tug of war between a team from Beloit and one from Janesville. There will also be foot racing, jlg dancing and other games for which there will be prizes given.

Crowds are expected from Beloit, Rockford, and other surrounding towns if the day is favorable. The picnic is expected to be one of the largest ever held in the park.

Thurs. cars will run every half hour to accommodate all those who will attend. The fare will be 55 cents for the round trip. Attendance to park free.

It won't cost you a cent to see all the amusements with the exception of the ball game, for which 15 cts. admission will be charged. You will see a more interesting ball game and enjoy it better than any game you have seen this season at the park.

If the weather permits you will no doubt see one of the largest crowds on the grounds this season.

CEMENT DAM FOR THE LINE CITY

Great Improvement in the Water Power System is Now Being Planned For.

The repairs to the dam of the Beloit Water Power company at the Line city will be the most extensive that the company has ever made, and it is not unlikely that a cement dam will be constructed.

A new pier of stone or cement is to be built on the west end of the dam by the paper mill and the officers in charge of the improvement are seriously considering the use of cement for the work. To enable the prosecution of the work, the water of the river above the dam will be drawn down about four feet from the present stage, which will give the lowest water above the dam that has ever been known since the dam was constructed. Just when this work will be done has not been fully decided upon, but it will be done as soon as matters can be brought about.

The discontinuance of the water power means much to the factories which use it but the time has come when the dam must be thoroughly repaired, and the Water Power company, which includes all the concerns using the water power, are prepared to do a thorough job.

TALE NOT CREDITED BY OFFICER BROWN

No Stock Is Taken in James Lee's Sad Story of Being Robbed by Saloon Keeper.

After taking on too large a cargo of distillery products for safe navigation, James Lee fell into the hands of the police last evening and was piloted to the lock-up. He told a harrowing story to the effect that a local saloon-keeper had taken his money away from him while he was asleep some days ago and had denied all knowledge of the cash when sobriety returned. Acting Chief Brown says that on investigation he found that the first part of the story was true. The money had been taken from the man but the saloon-keeper claimed that Lee returned for the money, lent a friend a dollar of it, and took the balance away. As the proprietor is a reputable business man while Lee is reported to have recently been spending all of his earnings at the beet sugar factory for rum, his story is not credited by Officer Brown.

MADISON TRIP IS AGAIN POSTPONED

Capital City Players Not Ready for Janesville-Home Tournament on Tuesday Next.

There will be held at the Shinnipoli links next Tuesday a home tournament for ladies in flights of four, playing at scratch. It is expected that there will be at least four flights and the best sixteen scores will qualify both for this event and the Valentine medal contest. The first mentioned tournament will be completed during the coming week and will require three days play on the part of the ladies participating. The first round of the Valentine medal play will be held on Tuesday, August 23. Secretary J. P. Baker has received from Madison that some of the players there are out of the city and it will be more convenient to have the Janesville club come sometime after the 20th of this month.

DETECTIVE LEITH LEAVES THE CITY

Depart for Grand Forks, South Dakota, Where the Reservation Is Being Opened.

Detective Louis Leith of the St. Paul railroad, who has twice returned to the city since his arrest of the pickpocket on circus day, has apparently concluded other investigations which he has been conducting here and leaves today for Grand Forks, South Dakota, where the reservation is being opened up. Mr. Leith's territory is bounded by the two oceans and he travels many thousands of miles each year in the pursuit of crooks and lawbreakers. He was at one time sheriff of Columbia county, this state, for a year, having been urged to take the office after he had fulfilled his mission of breaking up a gang of horse-thieves. During his brief term he captured and sent to state's prison sixty-seven men.

MUCH INTEREST HAS DEVELOPED

New Militia Company Meets Next Monday Night to Elect Officers for the Coming Year.

Interest in Janesville's new military company is on the increase. Monday night the company held its second regular drill, six new recruits signed the muster and several other applications were received that will be acted upon at the next business meeting. Friday evening there will be no drill on account of the monthly meeting of the G. A. R., but next Monday night the company will assemble in the G. A. R. hall for the purpose of electing officers and attending to several important business matters which will come before the company for consideration at that time. Every member is urged to be present Monday evening at 8:30 p. m. sharp and we are requested by the officers of the civil organization to extend a cordial invitation to attend the meeting to all young men of this city who wish to join the company.

HAS TREASURY BECOME EMPTIED?

Inquiry Into Kempf's Accounts May Not Be Most Pleasing to the Administration.

A lively interest has been aroused among politicians through stories from Madison regarding the state funds. It is hinted that the state treasury may under certain conditions be found empty within a month or two. It all comes through the investigation being made by the expert accountant of the Baltimore Surety company, which is on the bond of State Treasurer Kempf.

When the state some time ago received $158,000 from the federal government as a part of the refund of the civil war tax levy, instead of being returned to the trust funds from which it was originally taken, it was turned over to the general fund in order to lessen taxes. Now the surety company is going into the status of this fund lest it be held responsible on the treasurer's bond for the amount in case he should not turn it over to the trust funds.

It is stated that Mr. Kempf has had doubts as to whether he had the right to place this money in the general fund, and has always kept that fund above $158,000. But when the accountant came to investigate the affairs of the office it is stated that his attention was attracted to this matter, and he will report on it.

ENGLISH LUTHERANS WILL HOLD RECEPTION THURSDAY

To Old and New Members and Friends in Lecture Room of Church.

Thursday evening in the lecture room of the church, St. Peter's English Lutheran congregation will give a reception to new members and friends. No special invitations were sent out; no tickets are sold; rich and poor alike are welcome. A short program will be rendered and refreshments served free. No matter who you are, if you sympathize with the good work that this young congregation is doing, you have now an opportunity to show your good will in this season of rejoicing as well as in the honors appointed for devotion, bring a friend, or, better still, make a friend by bringing a stranger.

IS SCANDALOUSLY HEALTHY NOWADAYS

Janesville Physicians May Have To Go Out of Business—No Contagious Disease in Two Weeks.

"The city is unusually healthy for this time of the year," said Health Officer Morrill this morning. "There has not been a single case of contagious disease reported for two weeks." The disinclination of certain people to bury their beasts of burden and household pets after they have ceased to be useful, or companionable is causing the health department considerable work. A dead horse was found on an island down river yesterday and three dead hogs in as many neighborhoods were doing what they could to make human existence devoid of poetry.

WERE MARRIED LAST EVENING

Miss Clara A. Fisher and Mr. William Dixon Wedded at Evansville.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Fisher of Evansville when the marriage ceremony of their daughter, Miss Clara A. Fisher, to Mr. William Dixon, both of Evansville, was performed by Rev. Wilson of the Episcopal church of that city. MOB ATTACKS MEAT WAGONS

POLICE USE CLUBS ON RIOTERS

Many Persons Are Injured in the Furious Attempts to Prevent the Delivery of Products to the Retail Butchers by Teamsters.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—Rioting resulted from several attempts made yesterday to move meat from packing houses. Two policemen were injured in the riots, scores of strike sympathizers were clubbed and one man was knocked senseless by being hit on the head with a brick.

A series of riots resulted in the evening from an effort to move meat from the stockyards to Fulton market. All the available police reinforcements were rushed to the scene. Several shots were fired in the air by the police during the fighting which followed.

A large number of those in the crowd were clubbed.

Mob Upsets a Wagon.
Early in the afternoon a wagon owned by Rettinger & Hoffner, retail butchers at 362 South Clark street, was loaded with meat at Armour & Co.'s branch house at Rockwell and Madison streets and started on its return trip. The drivers, Tony Rettinger and Bob Lee, had reached Madison and Jefferson streets when a mob gathered and upset the wagon. Bricks and stones were thrown at the drivers, Rettinger being struck on the head and made unconscious.

Police from the Desplaines street station pursued the mob and righted the wagon, which with the help of another that had been sent out by the owners proceeded across the river. At Market and Van Buren streets the crowd had grown to more than 200 men, and the wagons were stopped again. A riot call to the Harrison street police station brought a dozen policemen, and it was only after a struggle with the mob and a show of revolvers that the officers were able to clear the street.

During the rioting Donato Roy, a trackman employed on the Metropolitan "L" new extension, is said to have thrown a sledge hammer at the police. The hammer passed within a few inches of Policeman Fleming, and a chase for Roy followed. He tried to escape on a passing train, but was captured.

Club Back the Rioters.

Inspector Lavin, with forty policemen at his command, led a march against 1,000 rioters at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Clark street, between Polk and Van Buren streets. A wagon of Schwartz & Sulzberger had delivered meat at the Fulton market during the afternoon and on its return was besieged at Clark and Van Buren streets by hundreds of men, who threatened the life of the driver. A riot call to the station brought two patrol wagons filled with officers, and all used their clubs freely from that point to Polk street.

Twenty policemen under Sergt. Duffy of the Harrison street station waited for more than two hours for the arrival of twenty strike breakers from Baltimore at the Grand Central depot last night, but on account of the wreck at Thirty-ninth street and Western avenue the men did not come. They were sent from that point into the yards.

Orders were given during the day by Chief O'Neill that traffic must not be impeded and that all who attempt to stop wagons should be arrested.

HARD COAL MINERS QUIT WORK

Employees Contend That They Are Deprived of Half a Ton to the Car.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 10.—Eight hundred miners employed at the Old Forge colliery of the Erie company went on strike Tuesday. The strikers claim that the scales with which the mine cars are weighed are incorrect, and that they are deprived of the credit for half a ton of coal for each car. The miners asked that an expert make an examination of the scales. The company, they claim, agreed to this, but before the inspection was finished the company countermanded the order.

The trouble at the Barnum colliery, where 1,000 men are on strike, it is said, is of a similar character.
